A PLACE OF THE DEAD.

"He was found in the East River."

"How did he get there?"

"Who knows?" said the keeper of the morgue, shaking his head as he turned away from the unfortunate piece of clay that had been the subject of our conversation.

The question that has no answer could be spoken over many a pine box with its gruesome contents lying in the city morgue. There will probably never be an answer to the question, for the body bore no marks by which it could be identified, and the tide may have carried it a strange journey to the spot where it was found. The owner had been a poor man, to judge by appearances, and, very likely, finding himself without work, he went down to the river, and from there he will go to the Potter's Field by way of the morgue and that will be the end.

Christmas time is generally prolific in suicides, for then the man without a home and the woman who dares not return to the home that waits for her find the contrast sharper. The cold, too, increases, and a long winter stares the unfortunate in the face. So the temporary resting place for the unclaimed dead receives many of such at the Christmas season. Accidental deaths, especially drowning, are far more common in summer. The fruitful cause is liquor. The incubator goes to the pier, falls asleep on its edge, rolls off, and the river overwhelms him before he can regain his senses.

The morgue itself is a rectangular structure built over the water in the fashion of a bathhouse. It is at the east end of Twenty-sixth street, and behind it are the extensive buildings of the Bellevue Hospital. All the unclaimed dead of the city go to this morgue, whether they die in the hospitals, upon the streets, in the parks or in one of the two rivers that run down on the east and west. About 7,000 is the number per year, and a good proportion of them are entered in the list of "drowned." A human being may come to his death by drowning in more ways than one, as the First Grave Digger in "Hamlet" takes some pains to explain, and of those who come to the morgue it is hard to say whether they sought death or were betrayed to it by accident or a crime. They are found by the harbor police, by some boatman, and in a considerable proportion of cases that is all that is ever known. The mystery which surrounds these deaths becomes doubly interesting when one reflects that the two rivers do not always render a just account. The ocean takes many a body and leaves no room. The number of deaths from drowning that are never explained, certainly that remain absolutely unknown, must be a startling sum.

New York has no particular "jumping off place," or spots to which suicides regularly go. Each of the piers comes in for its share; the Battery has its patronage, and the lakes of Central Park receive a few.

THE FASCINATING CIRCUS.

Mechanical Precision of Horse and Rider.

The fixed dimensions of the arena comply with a two-fold purpose—the requirements of the man and the habits of the animal.

Horses are inveterate wanderers from town to town. Wherever they go they carry with them an absolute identity of movement, which secures for an exercise its mathematical and mechanical precision.

Neither the horse, and probably his riders, know centripetal and centrifugal forces, even by name, but precise enables them to measure those forces accurately and to keep them in exact equilibrium with their speed.

In circles of invariable dimensions, the artists, biped and quadruped, are everywhere at home. On the same identical extent of sand or sawdust, a false movement is never made by experienced performers.

The horse knows his business and fulfills it without hesitation; he is not put out by having to act his part under unaccustomed conditions. And he is proud of having acted it well.

There are horses who take all the applause for themselves, and want to treat the public to an encore before it is asked for. The rider may urge them to make their exit; they will strive to linger before their admirers a little longer.

CIGARETTE PAPERS.

What the Boy-Killer is Wrapped In.

Paper for cigarettes is made from cotton and linen and from rice straw, and is largely of foreign manufacture. Cotton paper is used in the cheapest and most poisonous grades of cigarettes, and is so cheap that the wrappers for a thousand cotton paper cigarettes cost only two cents. Rice paper is the choicest and most costly.

Tobaccoized paper is made by saturating paper with an infusion of tobacco and pressing it in such a way as to produce an imitation of the veins of the tobacco leaf. Some use has been made of the fibre of the stalks of the tobacco plant in producing a paper for all-tobacco cigarettes.

The lime and other substances used in bleaching cotton and other raws for cigarette papers have a very harmful influence upon the membrane of the throat and nose. Arsenical preparations are also used in bleaching cigarette papers, and oil of creosote is produced naturally as a consequence of combustion.

This is very injurious to the throat and lungs and is said to accelerate the development of consumption in anyone predisposed to the disease.

Flattering Delaware.

The little son of Le Grand Abbey of Ponchokko uttered another bright saying yesterday.

His mother is making plans for a Martha Washington party and she made the remark that she would need the services of boys to represent States:

Stephen said:

"I want to be a State, mamma."

"No, Stephen, you can represent Yankee Doodle. You are too small to be a State."

"Oh, no, mamma, I want to be a State. I am big enough to represent Delaware."

Senator Stewart's Speech.

Senator Stewart's speech at the McKissick Opera House last Saturday night contained a complete history of the tariff from the time of the adoption of the Federal Constitution until the present time, and was the most comprehensive and lucid explanation of that vital question ever listened to by a Reno audience. Any man or woman in the audience capable of comprehending the effects on all American industries, of a low tariff could not fail to have been convinced that the adoption of the policy of the present administration would be political suicide and the destruction to all the leading American industries. Cleveland's record on silver was reviewed from the Warner letter to the present, showing him to be the most persistent enemy silver has ever had. He also showed that every material interest of Nevada has been attacked and in a great measure crippled, by the President and his army of spies and detectives. He also gave the history of the Scott Chinese Exclusion Act, and showed that every effort was made by the Democratic Senators to secure its defeat. The Senator's charge that the policy being pursued by the President was, and still is, being dictated by the rebel brigadiers and the gold-bugs of Wall street was clearly proven. The meeting closed with three cheers for Harrison and Morton and the whole ticket.

CLEVELAND'S love for the free laborers of this country was exemplified when he pocketed the bill prohibiting Government work to be done by State convicts, following his veto by letting a contract for 600 Government wagons to a contractor of convict labor at the Tennessee State Prison.

In his closing speech of the campaign at Brooklyn last Saturday night, Blaine said the procession of that day was the mightiest political procession that ever trod the streets of New York.

The Times says that the most of the Italians of Lyon county say they will vote the Republican ticket this year; that they are done with Cleveland and free trade.

A VOTE for Harrison and Morton is a vote to protect our home manufacturers and keep up wages.

VOTE for Bartine for Congress, and show that you do not endorse free trade principles.

VOTE early to-morrow, and vote for Harrison and Morton.

A VOTE for Cleveland means free trade and hard times.

CAST your vote to-morrow for protection.

A Mandamus Denied.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Judge Lawrence of the Supreme Court to-day denied the application of Mrs. Cynthia Leonard, candidate of the Equal Rights party for Mayor, for a mandamus to compel the Judges of election to accept her vote. The ground of the application was that the constitution of the United States permits woman suffrage and that no State can abridge the rights guaranteed under the national law.

Loss of Life by an Explosion.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 5.—The mills of the Oriental Powder Co., near South Windham, exploded about noon. There were four buildings, one a kernel mill and three wheel mills. The explosion originated in the kernel mill. There was only a fraction of a second between the explosion of the kernel mill and those of the other three. Only two men were in the mills and both were fatally hurt. The property loss is not large.

Attacked by Highlanders.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—A gang of about a dozen highlanders broke into a brothel in Chinatown this morning and attacked men, who were the proprietors of the house. One of the proprietors shot a highlander with a bory pistol. All escaped except one man who was arrested and taken to the police station. The man who did the shooting was the man who was arrested.

Nitro-Glycerine Explosion.
 PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—Intelligence is just received of an explosion of a nitro-glycerine magazine near Shamokin, Pa., twelve miles from here, this morning. Great damage was done to surrounding property. The magazine belonged to the Torpedo Company of Delaware. The explosion was terrific, and was felt twenty-five miles away. All the houses and shanties in the vicinity were shattered. It was reported that a large number of persons had been killed and injured, but it is now believed that no one was hurt, though nothing definite is known. It is supposed the explosion was caused by a tramp, through ignorance. There were between two and three tons of glycerine in the magazine. The earth was torn up for a distance of 500 yards, and a tree an eighth of a mile away was rent asunder, and many houses were wrecked. The residences of George and William Wilson and Thomas McCoy, half a mile away, were completely shattered, and the occupants thrown through the windows, but not seriously hurt. As far as can be ascertained, no one was killed, except, possibly, the tramp.

How Election Returns are to be Collected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Elaborate preparations have been made for collecting the Presidential vote on election night. In New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania it will be collected by the Associated Press alone. In all other States the work will be done by the Associated Press and Western Union Telegraph Company acting together. In all States except Ohio the vote will be compared with the Presidential vote of 1884. In Ohio the comparison will be made with the vote for Governor in 1887, the complete redistricting of the State making comparison with the vote of 1884 impracticable. The returns of New York City will be collected by O'Rourke's City Press Association. No comparison can be made in general bulletins, as many polling districts have been subdivided since 1884, but comparison with the vote of '84 will be made by the Assembly districts as fast as they are fully reported.

Lost at Sea.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Captain B. Jonness of the Norwegian bark Nor, which collided with the sunken steamer Saxmundham off Cowes, disclaims the responsibility for the accident. He says the Saxmundham ran into the Nor while the weather was perfectly clear. The crew of the Nor remained on the bark eight hours after the accident, and they then abandoned her. He said signals of distress were made to passenger steamers, but they declined to render assistance. Nothing has been heard of the twenty-two persons missing, and there is but little doubt that they were down.

A Flagrant Insult.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The brig Richard T. Green, Captain Patrick, from St. Marc, Hayti, reports that on October 18th, when off St. Marc, he was ordered to heave-to by a Haytian man-of-war, whose armed officers and men came on board three times, taking away the ship's register and all her papers, and threatening to take her to Port au Prince as a prize. After detaining them some time, the papers were returned and the vessel allowed to proceed.

An Irritated King.

NICE, Nov. 5.—The King of Wurtemberg is much irritated over the newspaper reports, charging that he is under the influence of three Americans of whom he made favorites. A few days ago the King summoned Baron Von Mittenbach, the Wurtemberg Prime Minister, to Nice and instructed him to make an official denial of the report. His private estate has been involved by his expensive habits.

Gladstone's Views.

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 5.—Gladstone arrived to-day, and will remain the most of the week and make several speeches. A great crowd awaited him, and numerous deputations presented addresses. He said the addresses fully recognized the fact that the Irish question was really the English, Scotch and Welsh question, and until that question is settled the country could neither have peace nor effectual progress; that all efforts to solve the fisheries question with the United States have been egregiously failures; that the Liberals did not wish to increase the difficulty, but were desirous that, by judicious choice of persons, the question will be settled in a manner tending to draw both countries into closer relations. The Sackville incident was extremely unfortunate, and it resulted in the infliction of a serious slight and disparagement upon England. He hoped the matter was susceptible of a satisfactory explanation, the incident ought to serve to moderate the spirit of vaunting and bragging in vogue among many Tories.

A Runaway Frenchman.

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—A sensation has been caused by the arrest of Adelaide Noel, on a charge of using threatening language to C. E. Soraty, once Under Minister of Finance in France and President of the Bank of Lyons. As President of the Bank of Lyons, Soraty declared the reserve fund in gold, when in reality it was in the bonds of the Union Generale, and when the Union Generale went under, so did the Bank of Lyons. Soraty escaped to Canada, taking with him, it is said, something like a million francs. He also brought the wife of his private secretary, so the story goes, and settled here, where for the past few years he has devoted himself to literary work. Adelaide Noel, who styles herself the head of the Paris police society, on Saturday walked into the Soraty villa with a revolver and threatened to be avenged on both Soraty and the woman who ran away with him, leaving her husband behind to die of a broken heart. If the case is pushed, a play history will be brought to light.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Times, in a long editorial on the Presidential contest in the United States and the Sackville matter, says there is not the slightest reason to retaliate on Minister Phelps, and advises the Government to show deliberation in choosing a successor to Lord Sackville. It adds: "The election may involve a change in the Government. That matter is one of perfect indifference to Englishmen, but that March next will be fully time enough to appoint a successor to Lord Sackville."

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to the Times from Zanzibar says: The Germans have burned all dhows and boats in Whind harbor. Lieutenant Phipps, of the Albatross, in the face of a heavy Arab fire, chased a dhow with 200 slaves off the north coast of Madagascar until the dhow was grounded.

GOODHOPE, Ala., Nov. 5.—John Ray and W. T. Wilkerson, prominent citizens, quarreled about a land speculation and began firing. Ray was killed instantly, and Wilkerson died in a few minutes.

Statistics show that twenty per cent.

of the people of the United States are suffering from disease of the kidney and urinary organs. A simple pain in the back, if neglected, often runs into that terrible scourge, Bright's disease, which carries off so many of our prominent men. If you are afflicted with any urinary or kidney trouble, no matter how slight, do not put it off until too late, but procure a package of Oregon Kidney Tea and take according to directions. It will cure you. Sold by Wm. Pinniger.

Do you feel dragging sensations in the back and loins, are you troubled with wakefulness, faintness, loss of appetite, are you nervous or irritable? If so, would advise you to try Oregon Kidney Tea (purely vegetable). It never fails to effect a permanent cure of kidney and urinary complaints. Sold by Wm. Pinniger.

FOREST GROVE, Oregon, March 8.—I have been troubled many years with weakness of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies, sought aid from different physicians and even changed climates to obtain relief, but have met with indifferent success. Hearing through a friend of the value of the Oregon Kidney Tea, I obtained a box of it and have derived more benefit from it than from anything else I have yet found. Sold by Wm. Pinniger.

Death by Morphine.

Harry Strange, who for twenty years was Clerk of Sierra county, Cal., and who was recently mentioned in the GAZETTE as having attempted suicide, is now reported dead, all efforts to revive him from the effects of the deadly morphine having failed. Poor Harry, he was a bright young man when this reporter and R. R. Parkinson of the Carson Tribune, in 1861, voted for him in a Republican Convention at Downville, the first time he ever ran for an office.

PERSONAL.

County Assessor J. D. Kersey of Ormsby was in town last evening.

Mrs. General Evans is reported very ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. C. J. Brookins and Miss Emma Gibbs returned last night from the Bay.

Lieutenant White of the Presidio, Cal., went to Fort Bidwell this morning to attend a Court-martial.

Hon. Wm. Thompson, who returned from San Francisco last Saturday night, went through to Franktown.

Low Stevenson and family went to California last evening. Mrs. S. and son will winter in Los Angeles and Mr. Stevenson will return tomorrow morning.

Mrs. D. G. Corbett of Carson, whose husband went below in bad health, recently received a telegram last Saturday asking that she join him as soon as possible, and she and children went down Saturday night.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

The County Commissioners were in session to-day.

Saturday night's west-bound overland was nearly eight hours late.

The San Francisco Chronicle says there were over 14,000 protectionists in line on the occasion of the Republican parade in that city last Saturday night.

Fred Pavola is in the field with a choice lot of men's and boys' boots and shoes, which he is selling at greatly reduced rates. Give him a call and be convinced.

On the arrival here this morning of the east-bound overland, a broken wheel under the mail car was discovered, its replacement delaying the train about two hours.

Engineer E. H. Robinson of the Nevada Central was severely scalded at Austin on the 1st inst. by the blowing out of a steam plug, while at work under his engine—so says the Reveille.

Attention is called to the card of Judge Wm. Webster in to-day's GAZETTE. Judge Webster enjoys a large and lucrative practice now and any business entrusted to him will be carefully attended to.

Abner Miller, an old soldier, died last Thursday at Kokomo, Indiana, from a terrible beating which he received on Monday night during a Democratic rally, because he shouted for Harrison and Morton.

The Hailey, Idaho, News Miner reports the recent discovery of the remains of a miner by the name of A. B. Wilson who had been missing for about two months, and who is supposed to have been murdered for his money.

I. N. Bakesley, the Virginia street groceryman, is building a nice dwelling on Mill street (South Side), on the lot formerly owned and occupied by U. S. District Attorney, Thos. E. Haydon. The new structure is a story and a half high and very neat.

Will Soon Have a Rest.

The Grass Valley Tidings says: Next week, on and after Tuesday, the "eloquent and telling speech," which Orator Puff is accustomed to deliver from every stump, will be heard no more for two long and we trust happy years. The campaign he will then quit for the same length of time.

J. F. ALEXANDER, Chairman.

S. J. HODGKINSON, Secretary.

NEVADA PRODUCTS.

A Complimentary Notice From a San Francisco Paper.

The Bulletin says: Those persons whose chief ideas of Nevada are associated with sagebrush and the Comstock lode had better go to the State Board of Trade headquarters on Market street and see the horticultural and vegetable products just sent down here for exhibition. If they are not surprised they will differ in this respect from all who have yet seen the display. No New Englander ever saw such apples. One would make dessert for a family, and two would supply apple dumpling material for a boarding-house. Rosy and clear skinned, without sign of speck or worm, they set in long rows on shelves waiting to be admired. Here are samples of Spitzenberg, Swart, York Imperial, Rhode Island Greening, Winesap, Bellflower, Brother Jonathan, Kentucky Red, Fall Pippin, and various others. They are all from Washoe county, as is the bulk of the exhibit. A few products are from Esmeralda county. The apples are the most attractive feature of the contribution, but there are some monster potatoes and beets, grain and hay from the fertile Washoe Valley, minerals and other things. Among the contributors and producers are Ross Levers of Washoe, Governor C. C. Stevenson of Carson, William Thompson and R. W. Parry of Reno, J. C. Peckham of Washoe, T. J. Herman of Wadsworth, D. A. Bender of Camdelaia.

The Nevada display has been arranged in the rear room of headquarters, but space is cramped and the managers feel that soon more room for the attractive products must be secured. Nevada will send yet more of her good things to convince the home-seekers of her agricultural possibilities. Towns in Southern Oregon are arranging displays to be exhibited here, samples of Arizona products are expected and more counties of California are coming in to help maintain the permanent exhibition. It is planned now to secure two large stores which adjoin the present quarters running through to Second street, and make them into Oregon and Nevada annexes, respectively. Archways would be cut in the dividing walls, and the general appearance of headquarters would be much improved. Governor Stevenson of Nevada promises legislative aid to maintain a State exhibit. Ken is among the late additions to the enlisted roll of counties.

Many of the goods which astonished the people at the recent Columbus exhibition have been returned to their places in the rooms, apparently none the worse for their long journey. Much credit is given Assistant Secretary McDonald for his efforts in shipping products and keeping them from injury. It is planned soon in consequence of the growth of the organization to change the name from California State Board of Trade to Pacific Coast Board of Trade.

No further steps in the plan to send a rolling exhibition of California to the Eastern States can be taken until various Eastern connections of the Southern Pacific can be heard from relative to transportation rates. It is presumed that most of the companies, from consideration of the fact that they do not stop to consider their lines free of charge. By the first part of December it is hoped to have the project in shape and the cars moving eastward.

Stock Items.

The Winnemucca Silver State of the 3d inst. says: Colonel Hardin has purchased about 600 tons of hay of L. N. Carpenter at Big Meadows, and purposes shipping 320 steers from his Quinn river ranch to eat it. The cattle will be fattened for the San Francisco market.

J. G. Holloway, Superintendent of the Miller & Lux ranch at Piute Valley, is having 350 head of beef cattle driven to Humboldt House for shipment to California.

Charles McDeid shipped a carload of fine Merino wools to Elko yesterday for Lockwood & Davis of Hamilton, White Pine county.

Slashed with a Knife.

Two drunken shepherds by the name of Arthur Williams, in the employ of Bacon, the sheepman, and Charley Barstow, a man working for D. C. Wheeler, engaged in a drunken quarrel at the Pioneer House this afternoon, when Barstow whipped out a knife and slashed Williams across the left cheek, laying it open the whole length and barely missing the jugular vein. Barstow was placed under arrest, while Dr. Lewis dressed the wounded man's cheek.

Not Drowned.

It is now believed, says the Genoa Courier, that O. W. Dickey was not drowned in Lake Tahoe, as reported last week, but that he has gone East. We are reliably informed that Mrs. Dickey a few days ago discovered $80 in greenbacks in a toy bank belonging to her little boy, and it is almost certain that Mr. Dickey put the money there before leaving home.

Cattle received.

Fourteen cars of the Sparks & Tinnin cattle, shipped at Tacoma, were received here yesterday by John Slavan for Grayson, Owen & Co., and were driven out to the Lake ranch where George Douglas will feed them for market. On the same train were five cars of fat cows which Mr. Sparks offers for sale here.

Worse Than the Rabbits.

The mouse pest in Australia is much worse than the rabbit pest. The climate is so soft that they have thrived enormously, and there is said to be hardly a residence or store that is not infested by the pest, while from every side come tales of crops devoured so rapidly that many fields have had to be abandoned, what was left not being worth reaping.

Being Depopulated.

Western Kansas is reported to be fast becoming depopulated, crops for three successive years having proven a failure. Scott county, which two years ago had a population of 4,000, now has 450, the people having been obliged to leave or starve.

NEVADA'S VOTES.

How They Have Fallen Since She Became a State.

The State of Nevada gave Mr. Lincoln, in 1864, a vote of 9,826; McClellan 6,594; Republican majority, 3,232. In 1868 it stood for Grant 6,430, Seymour 5,213; majority, 1,217.

In 1872, Grant 8,413, Greeley 6,236; majority, 2,177.

In 1876, Hayes 10,383, Tilden 9,308; majority, 1,075.

In 1880 Hancock got 11,215, Garfield 10,445; a Democratic majority of 770.

In 1884 Blaine had 7,193, Cleveland 5,570; a Republican majority of 1,597.

The vote cast at each election foots up as follows: In 1864, 16,420; 1868, 11,643; 1872, 14,649; 1876, 19,691; 1880, 21,660; 1884, 12,789.

With the spirit shown in the canvass it is likely that Nevada will vote about as she did four years ago, and for convenience the following table is given:

COUNTY.	Blaine	Cleveland	Woodman	Cassidy
Churchill	96	88	87	97
Douglas	118	167	212	170
Elko	692	618	615	691
Eureka	572	495	536	737
Humboldt	428	538	374	576
Lincoln	786	260	174	281
Lyon	308	384	340	306
Nye	507	318	340	518
Ormsby	538	331	341	339
Storey	1,489	1,211	1,299	1,025
Washoe	1,775	1,455	1,455	1,775
White Pine	375	315	358	338

WAYSIDE NOTES.

Democratic advice to the British Minister: "Go West!"

Wit is said to be like champagne, never sparkling but once. It is better if it is extra dry, and sometimes better still if it is Mumm.

A Pittsburg chiropodist has 1,000 patients who pay him $10 a year each to keep their feet in repair. He ought to be able to pedal his own canoe.

Eighty cooks in the kitchen of the Sultan of Turkey struck for higher wages not long ago and were all sent into exile. This was in—Sultan Turkey.

The seven Vice-Presidents of the Standard Oil Trust have to make both ends meet on a salary of $25,000 a year apiece. Even with this income they always want trust.

The new Governor-General of Canada has visited Niagara Falls and the announcement is joyfully made that he is "pleased."

It is dreadful to contemplate the effect upon the country at large if his royal nibs hadn't taken kindly to the great show. But that great American upstart is not very easily sat down upon.

The President has had the huge glass chandeliers of the East room in the White House taken apart and sent to Philadelphia to be cleaned.

One day he didn't have them sent to England where the 40-cent-a-day laborers would have done the work a little cheaper. But then he has been getting extravagant lately.

The Bulletin spoke not long ago about Mr. Cleveland taking a hobby into the saddle with him to ride. The Bulletin evidently did not stop to consider that it would be a pretty small hobby that could get into the same saddle with the President, and besides that he knows too much about the deadly saddle horn, he does.

Some statistical chap has figured out that 500,000,000 words of partisanship and Tariff and Prohibition and general oratory are allowed from every word of Life in the silent places of the great American desert has one blessing deep and wide.

She Kept Her Word.

"Dear wife," said a dying husband, "if you marry again wait at least until the grass is growing over my grave." The widow promised faithfully that his wish should be respected. About two weeks after the funeral the widow visited the grave, and, pressing a gold coin in the sexton's hand, said: "Can't you have this grave sodded without delay?"

What the Boy Was For.

A bright little fellow, six years old, was told that it took six men and a boy to make a pin. "Ah!" said he, "I suppose it's the six men that make the pin and they keep the boy to stick it into to see if it's sharp enough."

Delicate Mechanism Disordered and Righted.

The most delicate and intricate piece of mechanism in the human structure is the nerves. As the telegraphic wires transmit the electric forces, so do these sensation, the force being the point, where sensation centers. Mental anxiety weakens this mechanism, sudden shocks paralyze it, but dyspepsia is its most deplorable foe. This foe is utterly defeated by the irresistible tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the cessation of the disorder in the stomach is reflected in the brain and nerves by restored tranquility and tranquility of the nerves implies, in this instance, renewed vigor. A distinguished medical authority says: "The victim of nervous debility, who finds chills at night and tremors by day necessities, should know that a cure must be sought among agencies which strengthen the nerves." And assuredly Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has proved to be the best of these. Malarial complaints, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, kidney and rheumatism often involve nervous troubles by sympathy, and all are eradicated by the Bitters.

Slipped in the Sud.

Is it not better to nip consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try and stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, Santa Abie, the King of Consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by California Cat-R-Cure. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by Osburn & Shumaker at $1, or three for $2 50.

PENDLETON, Oregon, January 12.—Having suffered with my kidneys I was induced to try the Oregon Kidney Tea, which relieved me in a short time. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe remedy for kidney difficulties.

Is Consumption Incurable?

C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says:

"Was down with the access of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; am now on my third bottle and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, O., says:

"Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, I would have died of lung troubles. Was given up by the doctors. Am now in the best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Hodgkinson & Co.'s drug store.

"I haven't the courage to die, sir. Hardly the courage to live. Can't drink enough to forget, sir. Ain't Christian enough to forgive."

This was the wail of a man who had endured the tortures of "liver complaint" and dyspepsia for years; and he might have endured them for life, had he not heard that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would make him a well man. He gave it a trial, and was cured. Once he was hollow-eyed, emaciated, and slowly tottering toward the tomb; but now he is vigorous, robust and healthy. There is nothing that can compare with the "Discovery" as a curative agent for stomach, constipation, impure blood and biliousness.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist, and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system, and prevent, as well as cure, all malarial fevers. For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price, 50 cents and $1 per bottle, at Hodgkinson & Co.'s drug store.

Ladies, do not ruin your complexion by the use of poisonous cosmetics and face powders. If your face is red and sunburned, if you are so unfortunate as to have pimples or blotches on the neck or face, Dandelion's Specific will not cover them like a coat of paint, but will most effectually remove all blemishes from the skin and restore it to its natural youthful bloom. Sold by Wm. Fininger.

Can you imagine any ailment that will make a good-natured person so peevish, dissatisfied, ill-tempered and cranky as biliousness? There is no reason whatever why any one should suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, torpid liver and loss of appetite when Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic, which every one knows is a certain cure, can be easily obtained. Sold by Wm. Fininger.

Hundreds of persons who have used Ayer's Hair Vigor attest its value as a stimulant and tonic for preventing and curing baldness, cleansing the scalp and restoring the youthful color to faded and gray hair.

WOMEN IN LOVE.

An Analysis Which May or May Not Be Just, but Is Worth Thinking about.

In the love of a woman there is always a certain element of childishness, which has a reflex, if but temporary action upon her whole nature. The phenomenon is due partly to the fact that she is under the dominant influence of a whirling material instinct, partly to the fact that the object of her love is of stronger make than herself, mentally, spiritually and physically.

This sense of dependence and weakness, and, consequently, of extreme youth, remains until she has children. Then, under the influence of peculiarly strong responsibilities, she gives her youth to them, and with it the plasticity of her nature.

The moment a woman falls in love, that moment she becomes an object of paramount interest in her own eyes.

All her life she has regarded herself from the outside; her wants and needs have been purely objective; consequently she has not known herself, and her spiritual nature has claimed but little of her attention. But under the influence of love she plunges into herself, as it were, and her life for the time being is purely subjective. She broadens, expands, develops, concentrates; and her successive evolutions are a perpetual source of delight and absorbing study.

Moreover, her sense of individuality grows and flourishes, and becomes so powerful that she is unalterably certain—until it is over—that her experience is an isolated and wholly remarkable one.

Naturally she must talk to someone; she is trembling with her discoveries, her excursions into the heretofore unexplained depths of human nature; the necessity for a confidant is not one to be wondered at, and who so natural or understanding a confidant as her lover?

If the lover be a clever man and an analyst, he is profoundly interested at first, particularly if she has some trick of mind which gives her, or seems to give her, the crack of individuality.

If he be a true lover, and a man with any depth of feeling and of mind, he does not tire, of course; but otherwise he eventually becomes either oppressed or frightened; he either wishes that women would not take themselves so seriously and forget to be amusing, or her belief in her peculiar and absolute originality communicates itself to him, and he does not feel equal to handling and directing so remarkable a passion.—Frank Lin.

THE PIOUS RUSSIAN.

One of the first things that strikes the stranger in St. Petersburg, and still more in Moscow, is the constant crossing that goes on in the streets. Whenever a devout Russian passes a church or a shrine or a holy altar he lifts his hat and crosses himself in the fashion of the Eastern Church.

In Moscow the number of shrines is so great and the sanctity of some of them so overpowering that it must be difficult for the devout orthodox to get along the street. In St. Petersburg the number is much less, but it is still sufficient to keep your iavostok's arms in tolerably active exercise.

Nothing puzzled me much. In St. Petersburg the women very seldom crossed themselves. For one woman who would make the sign of the cross in passing the shrine of the entrance to the Gostinnoi Dvor it would be made by a dozen men. In Moscow the women were more careful to perform their devotions, but in St. Petersburg the males were much more devout to outward seeming than the women.

Of the women who did obedience to the holy places in St. Petersburg all were poor. I did not see one well-dressed lady cross herself in the streets all the time I was in Russia. Officers and gentlemen were not so particular as the iavostokhs and workmen, but it was no uncommon sight to see them making the sign of the cross.

I traveled with Gen. Ignatieff from St. Petersburg to Moscow. The moment the train started the General crossed himself twice, remarking that although you should always pray, it was especially incumbent upon you to do so when starting on a journey.

The number of shrines in Russia where candles are burning before holy pictures is very great, and much greater importance is attached to the science of genealogy than is easily credible to the non-ritualistic rover.

Sunday was much more generally observed as a holiday than I expected. The shops on the Grand Morskaya and the Nevski Prospekt are almost all shut all Sunday.

St. Petersburg is not Sabbatarian by any means; it is more a day of amusement and of visiting than of devotion, but there seemed to me to be a much more general cessation of labor on Sunday in Russia than either in Germany or in France.—Correspondent.

AFRICAN RACE OF DWARFS.

One of the most striking things to be met with in the earlier pages of Emin Pasha's journal is a reference to a report which is brought to him between Lado and Duffel, on the Upper Nile, that a race of dwarfs inhabit mountain caves to the west of Beden.

They are said to be only forty inches high, of a brown color, and of great agility, to eat white ants and roots, and to shoot with very small arrows, which are poisoned and very difficult to extract.

The pigmies he was inclined to regard as the remainder of a dwarf population which ages ago spread itself over Central Africa.

Four years later he himself comes upon some specimens of the Akka, a pigmy people divided into numerous small tribes, who lead a nomadic life in the Monbuttu country.

One of these Akkas "had a reddish but rather dark skin (probably dirt), was very grumpy, rather swag-bellied, but exceedingly nimble. His height was 3 feet 6 inches. His whole body was covered by thick, stiff hair, almost like felt, which was especially thick on the breast."

A girl fourteen years of age measured 3 feet 7-8 inch in height. These people are said to be very expert hunters, but also very vindictive, so that the neighboring tribes are glad to let them have all they want for maintenance in return for skins and feathers, the products of the chase, which they prosecute with bows and arrows alone.

THE PLATFORM.

The Republicans of Washoe, proud of the past and hopeful for the future, heartily endorse the platform and nominees of the National Republican Convention, as adopted at Chicago, and the Republican State Convention at Winnemucca, and pledge a rousing majority for Harrison and Morton and Protection, and Murphy and Hartine and the ticket nominated by this Convention. We demand legislation from both Government and State in regard to irrigation, and for the improvement of our natural waterways, as well as for the storage of water, whereby the natural advantages of this section can be improved to their fullest capacity. We demand the most rigid economy in State and County affairs, and the establishment of the State's expenses upon such a basis as will secure good government at the lowest rate of taxation. We maintain that a rate of seventy-five cents should be sufficient to provide revenue for the State Government. In view of the rejection of the new Chinese treaty by the Mongolian Government, we demand the total and absolute exclusion of all Chinese, and they must go.
